In 1933, Philby was recruited by the Soviet intelligence service. He worked undercover for the Soviets for over two decades, rising to the rank of senior officer in MI6, the British Secret Intelligence Service.

Philby's treachery was finally uncovered in 1963, when he was exposed by a Soviet defector. He fled to Moscow, where he lived until his death in 1988.

All Twisted is the definitive account of Philby's life and treachery. Drawing on extensive research, Ben Macintyre tells the story of a man who betrayed his country and his friends for the sake of communism.

All Twisted is a gripping and suspenseful tale that sheds new light on one of the most fascinating espionage stories of the 20th century.
