Excerpt

"I remember the day I found out about John's affair like it was yesterday. I had come home from work and was about to make dinner when I noticed a strange envelope on the kitchen table. It was addressed to John, but the handwriting was unfamiliar.

My heart pounded in my chest as I opened the envelope. Inside, I found a single sheet of paper with a typewritten message. The words blurred before my eyes as I struggled to make sense of what I was reading.

'Dear John,' the letter began. 'I can't keep our secret any longer. I'm writing to you to tell you that I'm pregnant with your child.'"

I collapsed to the floor in tears. My world had been shattered. The man I loved had betrayed me in the worst possible way.

"But even as I was reeling from the pain of his betrayal, I knew I had to do something. I couldn't let John continue to lie to me and put our family at risk.

"I went to the authorities and reported John's activities. I knew that it would be a difficult road ahead, but I was determined to fight for what was right."
